

Georginna Lockett Wright

Class of 2005

Georginna Lockett-Wright, a native of Macon, Georgia enrolled at Tuskegee University on a four-year academic scholarship in 2000. Lockett Wright walked-on as a freshman and started six games for the Lady Tigerette Basketball team. She lettered four years as a continuous starter. She was selected to the AII-SIAC academic conference team in 2004, served as Co-Captain from 2001-2004 and had the highest G.P.A. on the team all four-years. Lockett-Wright played Semi Pro basketball for the Lady Knights from 2007-2009 in Atlanta.

Lockett-Wright earned a Bachelor of Science in Chemical Engineering from Tuskegee and was on the Dean's List every semester. She was the Vice President of Omega Chi Epsilon, a member of Beta Kappa Chi, National Society of Black Engineers and Women in Engineering, Fellowship of Christian Athletes, American Institute of Chemical Engineers-Georgia Club, and Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. She continued her education and earned a M.B.A. at DeVry Univ., MEd at Jones International Univ., and an Assoc. Degree in Funeral Services from St. Petersburg College.

Lockett-Wright's professional career began with Weyerhaeuser in N.C. as a Process Engineer, where she learned water treatment. She progressively mastered the field and earned a rewarding job as the Plant Manager of the Chattahoochee Water Treatment Plant in Atlanta, which provides safe drinking water to over 1 million customers. Additionally, Lockett-Wright started a nonprofit "Divine Success" in 2007 and has been educating children and youth, mentoring teenagers, and providing scholarships and community services opportunities.

Lockett-Wright has a strong belief in God. She is a member of the Greater Travelers Rest (House of Hope) of Atlanta, Georgia. With her cheerful upbeat and friendly personality, she served on the hospitality ministry, praise team and youth ministry. She believes youth can be excellent ambassadors for Christ and provides an excellent listening ear to the youth in her church.

Lockett-Wright is also an outstanding volunteer recruiter for Tuskegee University.

Georginna Lockett-Wright resides in Atlanta, GA with her loving family: husband Kelvin, son Solomon, and daughters, Lydia and Eden.
