

Dr. Rudy Deveaux

Class of 1992

Dr. Rudy Deveaux, a native of Cocoa, Florida enrolled at Tuskegee University on a four-year athletic scholarship in football in 1985. As an offensive guard, he was a three-year starter and was named Offensive Player of the Week versus Albany State University in 1986. He was also recognized as Most Improved Lineman during the 1986 season and subsequently served as a captain on the 1987 SIAC Football Championship Team.

Dr. Deveaux earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Social Work from Tuskegee University, and a Master of Science degree from Troy State University. He holds both a teacher and educational leadership certifications from Georgia State University and the University of West Georgia respectively. He is a member of Pi Lambda Theta Honor Society one of the nation's most prestigious education honor societies. Dr. Deveaux earned his Doctor of Philosophy degree in Educational Administration and Supervision from the University of Southern Mississippi.

Dr. Deveaux's professional career began at Hillside Hospital in Atlanta, Georgia as a behavior specialist. He assisted teachers with behavior management strategies in their classrooms. This led to his desire to become a classroom teacher and he ultimately landed a teaching position in the Cobb County Schools. He has progressively advanced to his current position of Asst. Principal.

Dr. Deveaux is affiliated with many community organizations. Numbered among them are the National Education Association, Campbell High School Elite Gentlemen Club (Sponsor), and Lion's Club. He is a member of the Cascade United Methodist Church and serves on the Trustee Board, Men's Usher Board, and Tuskegee University Scholarship (Sponsor).

Dr. Deveaux is a strong and consistent supporter of Tuskegee University. He is a member of the Atlanta Tuskegee Alumni Club (Chair of Golf Committee) and the Tuskegee Homecoming Golf Committee (Tuskegee Alumni for Student Success). He has been a Tuskegee Eminent Presidential Associate since 2009.

Dr. Rudy Deveaux resides in Mableton, Georgia with his wife Dr. Hermia Simmons Deveaux and daughter Kennedy.