

Kelly L. Stanley, Jr.
Class of 1975

Kelly Stanley a native of Enterprise, Alabama enrolled at Tuskegee Institute on a four year athletic scholarship in football in 1970. A placekicker and running back, he lettered all four years, was selected to the SIAC All Conference first team in 1973. He led Tuskegee in scoring three consecutive years (1971-73); he led the SIAC conference in scoring two consecutive years (1972-73). Kelly also set two university records as placekicker: fieldgoal of 46 yards and most fieldgoals in season (11) 1973.

As an electronics technology and industrial management major, Kelly performed as well in his class work as on the athletic field. Kelly was active in campus life. He was a winning contestant in the President's Essay Speech Contest in 1975. Kelly became a member of Kappa Alpha Psi fraternity in 1972. Graduating in May of 1975, Kelly also received additional studies in logistic management at the University of Tennessee and Army Acquisition Management College.

Kelly's career began as an avionics maintenance officer in the US Air Force at Merced AFB, California, serving four years. Additional employment was with Xerox Medical System in Tampa, Florida. Kelly retired after 32 years with the US Federal Service. The majority of those years were at Fort Fucker, Alabama with the Directorate of Combat Developments, developing helicopter combat aviation system, also the Directorate of Plans, Training, Mobilization and Security, and the Aviation Center Logistic Command.

Kelly's involvement in community activities has consisted of tutorial programs at his church, Johns Chapel AME, Vacation Bible School participant, assisting the elderly with home repairs and the adult literacy program through Enterprise State Junior College. Kelly also participates in the Tuskegee National Alumni Association's Adopt-A-Dorm program.

Currently Kelly resides in Daleville, Alabama.

With 25+ years of professional experience in the community. She worked as a community involved in community health initiatives and the Tuskegee Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta.

She is married to John Frank Suley who have three children: Nikesha, Myra and John, II.