

VIRDEN EVANS
Class of 1950

Virden Evans, Tallahassee, Florida, was a member of the football and track team at Tuskegee from 1946 to 1950. He lettered in football as center and linebacker; participated in track as a quarter-miler and was a member of the SIAC Conference championship track and field team.

Following graduation from Tuskegee, Evans pursued further study at Texas Southern University, Indiana University and Northwestern State University where he received the Doctor of Philosophy degree.

Currently serving as Assistant Dean and Professor, College of Education, Florida A & M University in Tallahassee, Dr. Evans has published widely in field of educational research and has been honored and recognized by the Community Leaders of America and Phi Delta Kappa. He is the recipient of the Edwin Bancroft Henderson Award.