

GEORGE M. SCOTT

Class of 1950

George M. Scott, a member of the Golden Tiger football team that was among champions. As offensive and defensive tackle, he letters each of his four years at Tuskegee (1946-1950). His athletic ability was not limited to the football but was exhibited in baseball as well. He was distinguished in academics, athletics and the military as a student.

After graduation from Tuskegee he served as football coach at Hudson High School in Selma, Alabama and was honored as coach of the year. He also worked as Personnel/EEO Management Specialist. In this position he received superior performance awards and several suggestion awards.

Mr. Scott has served his community well. He organized and conducted motivational seminars for students interested in science career fields and participated in the sickle cell walk-a-thons. He is a member of Kappa Alpha Psi fraternity, Toastmasters International and the NAACP where he held several offices and committee chairmen.