

KENDALL M. MAYFIELD

Class of 1971

Kendall M. Mayfield, an NIAI All-American, NCAA All-American First Team, NCAA Division II scoring leader, SIAC Scoring Champion, SIAC All Conference and most valuable player on the Golden Tigers 1970-71 SIAC Conference Championship Team.

After graduating from Tuskegee University, Mayfield played on three New York Knicks playoff teams - 1971, 1973 and 1974. He also won most valuable player honors in the Continental Basketball Association and the Southern Basketball League.

Mayfield is currently Vice-President of Alpha Mortgage Bankers in Stone Mountain, Ga. Mayfield's Tuskegee experience taught him that it is good to have support, therefore, he spends time assisting potential home buyers by providing free seminars, as well as volunteering as a Youth Basketball Coach. Additionally, he is a member of the Edward and Miller Foundation for physically challenged young adults.