

William E. Dillard
Class of 1961

William E. Dillard, an outstanding athlete, lettered in football and baseball and was several times named captain of the football and baseball team. Dillard is a certified baseball, basketball and football official.

Dillard's professional career span some thirty-four years including head football coach at Trinity Garden High School, boys and girls baseball and basketball coach at Nelson Adams Middle School and head baseball and track coach at Mae Eanes Middle School, Mobile, Alabama. He has received many awards and honors associated with his performance as a coach, including 3A Boys Championship and coaching an undefeated and an unscored on football team. He also was recognized for his 25 years in coaching. Through his many positions in the public schools of Mobile and his civic and social affiliations, Dillard has touched the lives of thousands of youth. He has motivated and instilled pride which helped them over many obstacles and become productive citizens.