

ALEX C. BROWN
Class of 1955

Alex C. Brown, Sr., Tuskegee Institute, Alabama was a member of the Football, Track and Field Teams from 1943 to 1948. He left Tuskegee in 1949, returned, and graduated in 1955. He received many letters and awards in these sports setting numerous records.

He furthered his education by obtaining the Master of Science Degree in Audio Visual Education from Indiana University.

His interest and support in the extension service led to many positions, including service in Dallas County with various Agricultural and Educational Groups. He conducted numerous workshops and institutes specializing in visual aids and materials. He initiated the county, wild life camp and the county-wide forestry camps in various parts of the state of Alabama.

He is a member of several professional and service organizations including the Alabama Cooperative Extension Service Employees Organization, Association for Education Communications and Technology, and the Tombigbee Development Advisory Board. He is a member of the Tabernacle Baptist Church and a member of the Good Samaritan Hospital Board, both located in Selma, Alabama.