

ALVIN GRIFFIN
Class of 1972

Alvin Griffin was an outstanding wide receiver and a three year letterman in football and baseball. Alvin was a member of four conference championship teams from 1967 to 1971. He was named All-Conference by the 100 Percent Wrong Club in 1970 and drafted in the ninth round by the Atlanta Falcons football organization in 1971.

Alvin's tenacity and excellence in athletics continued on the baseball field at Tuskegee. While playing on another Southern Intercollegiate Conference Championship team he again earned three letters. Although he played two sports his academic performance earned him a spot on the Dean's list.

Alvin currently resides in Birmingham, Alabama where he is employed as a caseworker for the American Red Cross. He is an active member of the Birmingham Area Tuskegee Alumni Club.
