

Dee C. Madison III
Class of 1970

Dee C. Madison III, a native of Concord, California, enrolled at Tuskegee in 1965 without a scholarship. Having received numerous scholarship offers after graduating from Selasian High in Richmond, California, his parents insisted on him attending Tuskegee. As a walk-on in 1965 he was injured before the season began. Following his injury, Dee C. lettered as an offensive tackle from 1966-1970. The tigers went undefeated during the 1967 season, and he was selected to the SIAC second team All Conference.

Dee C. received his Bachelors of Science degree in 1970 and obtained his Masters in degree in 1972. While completing his Masters Degree program at Tuskegee, he joined the staff of Auburn University in the Student Life and Development Center and continued to work there until 1976, when he went into the insurance business and opened an office in Auburn, AL.

Dee C. has been very active in numerous professional, civil, and social activities. As a student he regularly volunteered in the psychology department at the Tuskegee Veteran's Administration Hospital. He served as president of the Lee County Alabama Life Underwriters Association from 1994-1995, and was elected to the Board of Directors of Life Underwriters Association for the state of Alabama in 1995, and served until the year 2000.

Dee C is a member of the Lee County Sunrise Rotary Club, the Board of Directors at East Alabama Food bank Vice Basileus of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity Inc. Iota Omega Chapter and a member of Washington Chapel AME church in Tuskegee, AL

Dee C. has supported Tuskegee University throughout the years not only financially but also through service. He is a member of both the Tuskegee Alumni Club and Tuskegee University National Athletic Association.

After attending Tuskegee University, Dee C. fell in love with Tuskegee and continues to reside there. He is the proud father of three beautiful daughters: Brieu E. Madison, DeVaughan Madison Smith, Narvie D. Madison, adoring grandfather of six grandchildren and is currently married to Barbara Henry Madison.
