

EDWARD SCARBOROUGH
Class of 1957

Edward Scarborough played football and basketball at Tuskegee Institute from 1953 through 1957. He was a distinguished military graduate in 1957. He is a Danforth Fellow, was a member of the President's Commission on Defense Manpower and has received 15 military decorations.

Scarborough initiated a program for minority engineers which allowed minorities to receive master degrees in engineering while working in the private sector. He is a small business consultant, consultant to the nation's black colleges, and faculty advisor to the black student union at De Paul University. He is now self employed in Columbia, Maryland.