

HERMAN J. MABRIE
Class of 1950

Herman J. Mabrie, Houston, Texas, received his Bachelor of Science Degree from Tuskegee in 1950. While enrolled at Tuskegee he was named captain of the Golden Tigers Football Team and later received conference (SIAC) and All-American football honors. Herman's outstanding talents were not only on the gridiron, but academically as well he was an Honor Student in 1949 and 1950.

He continued his studies at Texas Southern University. He served as Football Coach of Kashmere Senior High School in Houston, Texas and is presently serving as Senior Administrator of Booker T. Washington High School which he has done for 23 years. As a prominent educator, he has received numerous awards and honors. He is recognized in the community as one who helps mold attitudes, assists in preparation for acceptance of social change, and instills an individual drive for excellence in every student with whom he comes in contact.

He and his wife Imelda Collins Mabrie, are the proud parents of three children: Dr. Herman J. Mabrie, III, Eric Charles Mabrie, and Dr. Imelda Rose Mabrie. To complete this family there are five grandchildren.

His professional and social memberships include Houston Association of School Administrators, Houston Bromeliad Association, Texas State Administrators Association, and Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity.