

Tuskegee University Athletic Hall of Fame

Lloyd Jones

Class of 1940

LLOYD D. JONES - was an outstanding basketball player at Tuskegee. He played on two championship teams; he played football and participated in intramural sports. He is known to many Tuskegeans as "Drag".

Jones is a supporter of the alumni program in the New York area and the Northeastern Regional Alumni Association. He served in the U.S. Army and retired as a Lt. Col. and director of administration at HQ First Army, Governor's Island, New York. He is presently vice president and personnel director of National Bank of Westchester Lloyd is involved in several community and civic affairs; to name a few--president, Urban League of Westchester County; vice chairman, New York State Housing Finance Agency; member, Westchester County Board of Parks, recreation and conservation; member, Executive Committee Personnel Division-American Bankers Association; past president, Westchester Chapter of the American Institute of Banking.

Jones' publications include: an article published in American Bankers Association Magazine, "Banking", August, 1965 - subject, "Bank Reports on Programmed Instruction," and an article in "American Banker" dated June 13, 1969, entitled "Bleak Labor Market Requires Search for Untapped Manpower."

He is married to the former Miss Verna Hunster of Lancaster, Ohio. They have four children and two grandchildren.