

RICHARD FREDERICK FULLER, SR.
Class of 1947

Richard Frederick Fuller, Sr., Tampa, Florida, was a member of the Football Team under the late Cleveland Leight Abbott and the Track and Field Teams under the late Ross C. Owen. During his collegiate football career, playing positions of quarterback and halfback, he received All-Conference (SIAC) honors in 1946. In track and field, he was also honored by the conference.

Off the gridiron this gentleman was a member of the T-Club and was voted most likeable as well as the most collegiate student in 1947.

Now retired as one of Florida's most prestigious junior high school principals, he has continued to serve his city in several ways, such as the Boy Scouts of America, Belmost Heights Little League and the Arthritis Foundation. Other affiliations include the Florida Association of Secondary School Principals and the Hillsborough County Junior High Principals Council.

In the spirit of his greatest mentors, Cleve Abbott and Irving Anthony Derbigny, we salute Richard Frederick Fuller, Sr.
