

WILBUR (BOOT) GREEN GEORGE
Class of 1948

Wilbur (Boot) Green George, Atlanta, Georgia, was a member of Tuskegee Institute's SIAC championship basketball teams of 1944, 1947, and 1948. He was All-SIAC and All-American in basketball in 1947 and 1948. He organized the Major Cleve Abbott and Ben Stevens Athletic Breakfast for the National Tuskegee Alumni Conventions.

George is a coach and teacher in Georgia and a Georgia High School Association football and basketball official. He was chosen teacher of the year at H.R. Butler High School in 1962 and outstanding coach at Drexel High School in 1966.

He has done much work with youngsters in athletics including coaching Little League basketball and Pop Warner football. He is also co-founder of the C.C. George Day Camp for boys.

George is a member of St. Paul of the Cross Church, a member of the Knights of Columbus, Omega Psi Phi Fraternity and the YMCA. He is also a scout master.